Speedometer Record—Episode Six

"PANIC"

After leaping from the tower window and knocking out the guards, "Speed" dashes away on a spirited horse. The chase is taken up by the guards. After a number of spectacular feats of horsemanship, "Speed" makes his escape by riding through a railroad tunnel and cutting off his pursuers by dashing in front of a train.

"Speed" finally reaches the hotel and seeks Lucy. Telling her that she is in great danger, he succeeds in persuading her to leave the country on the next boat. "Speed" also learns that his quarry, Jim Sprague, is about to take a boat to Africa. He determines to intercept him.

After getting Lucy safely aboard the American steamship, "Speed" hastens to the other pier to overtake Sprague. His enemies cut him off and the vessel sails. "Speed," however, leaps into a motorboat and speeds after the ship. He succeeds in getting aboard only to discover that fire has broken out. Hurrying through the smoke and fire, he encounters his quarry and a thrilling fight takes place. He throws Sprague overboard and leaps into the rough waters after him.
